Unashamed to Confess

Wes McAdams' theme was "with." He was talking about how we like to be together. We naturally have a desire to belong to something. We also want to be accepted by everyone. Someone who wants to be with us is Jesus. He wants to be accepted by us. If we want eternal life and to be free of our sins, we need to accept Jesus so that he can be with us. Even though we may be with other things and people, we must be with Jesus first and foremost. Showing others that we are with Jesus can help bring them to Christ and it also helps us to build spiritual strength, courage, and faith.

1 John 2:28 says, "And now, dear children, continue in him, so that when he appears we may be confident and unashamed before him at his coming."

We need to continue living in our faith so that we will be confident and unashamed in who we are with as Christians.
