

How Can It Be?

Kingdoms come and kingdoms fade, but always you remain. Ages pass and seasons change, but always you remain the same. You find me here at your feet again, everything I am, reaching out I surrender. Come sweep me up in your love again, and my soul will dance on the wings of forever. You plead my cause, you right my wrongs, you break my chains, you overcome! You gave your life to give me mine, you say that I am free, how can it be?

These words fill the chorus of another ReGen Harmony song that SGY learned at Denver City's Teenage Christian Conference. In this song we acknowledge that everything comes and goes except God, we admit that we continue to need the grace and mercy that we find only in His love, and we recognize what He does for us even though we don't deserve it or understand why: How can it be?

I am guilty, ashamed of what I've done, what I've become. These hands are dirty. I dare not lift them up to the Holy one. I've been hiding, afraid I've let you down. Inside I doubt that you still love me, but in your eyes there's only grace now.

These verses inside the song express the guilt and doubt that come from sin and forgetting that His sacrifice really is meant for us and our imperfections. But what we can't be, Jesus is! What we can't pay, Jesus paid!

The bass line that is sung throughout the song states: "Well, it is well, it is well, it is well with me."

Though we sometimes feel like the verses, we can remember the chorus, and in our continued amazement of God's love for us, we can feel the bass line too! How can it be? He has an amazing love for us!
