

Getting to Know Our Grads

Melissa Marie Livergood is the daughter of Mark & Nancy Livergood. Also the granddaughter of Jackie & Raymond Livergood.

Melissa was born on November 2nd, 1999 in Malcolm Grow Medical Center Andrews AFB, Maryland. She is a Senior at Central High School. After graduation, Melissa plans on majoring in Geosciences at Angelo State University and doing ROTC. After finishing College, she plans on being a Meteorologist as a Commissioned Officer in the United States Air Force.

Melissa has been involved with JROTC for four years. She has done over 100+ hours of Community Service with JROTC. She used to be in PT, unarmed, sabre, and color guard drill team. In May 2017, she marched in the National Memorial Day Parade in Washington DC with JROTC. She carried the Coast Guard Flag. In the beginning of the 2017 school year, she became a flight commander in the grade of Cadet 1st Lieutenant. But in October 2017, she has been promoted to the Orange Squadron Commander, TX-936 in the grade of Cadet Major. Melissa has enjoyed her four years in JROTC.

Melissa is very excited to start a new chapter of her life and she would like to thank God and everyone who has helped her in her life.

“Favorite Bible Verse”

He replied, "Because you have so little faith. Truly, I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you." Matthew 17:20
