

On The Move...

Jesus wants to lead us to glory. Like a brooding hen he opens his wings that we might seek His shelter and care. But we must keep our minds always open so we can be instructed and so we can be led. Listen to Jesus, “Ask and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened” (Matt. 7:7-8).

This does not describe one with all the answers in a neat written or unwritten creed. It describes a Christian with an open and inquisitive mind. The apostle Paul had this kind of mind set. He said, “One thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus” (Phil. 3:13-14).

This is how we should be. People who are bound for heaven cannot remain stagnant, especially in their knowledge and understanding of God's will. Be on the move with an open mind attuned to God's word. God will provide us with spiritual growth. All we must do is add our “want to” which manifests itself when we seek (study), when we ask (pray), and when we knock on the very doors of heaven (with our attendance, etc.) as we draw ever nearer to God.

God bless your journey to glory!
