

“Still”

“Hide me now, under your wings.

Cover me within your mighty hands.

Find rest, my soul, in Christ alone.

Know His power in quietness and trust.

When the oceans rise and thunders roar,

I will soar with you above the storm.

Father, you are king over the flood.

I will be still and know you are God.”

This song references Isaiah 30:15 where we read “In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength...” The verses before and after this speak of those who look for help elsewhere, relying on other things for protection and salvation. Among other verses, this song also references Psalm 46:10, where the psalmist wrote “...He says, “Be still, and know that I am God...” In being still, being quiet, and relying on Him, we can hear His voice, His words of salvation, His gospel, the power of God that brings salvation to everyone. We live in a noisy place. There are lots of things to hear and lots of things to listen to. Take time to listen to Him. Take time to be quiet and trust. Take time to be still, and know that He is God.
