

“Here In This Place”

Lay your burden down, every care you carry

And come to the table of grace,

For there is mercy.

Come just as you are, we are all unworthy

To enter the presence of God for He is holy.

Lift up your heart, lift up your hands,

Fall on your knees and pray;

For the King of kings

And the love He brings is here in this place.

We raise our voices, raise our song,

We offer Him our praise; for the King of kings

And the joy He brings is here,

He is here in this place.

This song by Chris Davis quickly became a favorite within our youth group a few years ago. It is a great reminder of several things about God. He is present in our worship. His son Jesus is the King of kings. He is Holy. We are not, but, He loves us anyway. He desperately wants us to come to Him, to give up the things of the world and receive His great mercy, grace, forgiveness, and salvation. SGY loves to sing it and think and talk about what these powerful words mean. We think you will too 😊
